

Had enough?

If you're distressed by conflict with others, you deserve a hand.

For everyone in King County, there's an affordable, confidential way to get help with life's conflicts.

The mediation and problem-solving services of the Dispute Resolution Center may help you reach a satisfying solution for family, neighborhood, workplace, contractual, and other disagreements.

See the list of conflict situations on the back, then give us a call.

Mediation works.
Get the process started today!

(206) 443-9603

DRCinfo@kcdrc.org
www.kcdrc.org

Dispute Resolution
CENTER of KING COUNTY

Really? You can help with that?

Here are some of the situations that can be helped through mediation, a problem-solving method that helps both sides to express their needs and reach mutually acceptable solutions.

FAMILY MATTERS such as divorce, asset division and parenting plans.

NEIGHBORHOOD PROBLEMS involving noise, animals, parking, property lines, lawn and garden care.

BUSINESS-CONSUMER ISSUES involving repairs, incomplete work, unmet expectations or warranties.

LANDLORD-TENANT PROBLEMS with security deposits, cleaning, unpaid bills or rent.

MORTGAGE PROBLEMS for which homeowners and lenders can explore alternatives to foreclosure.

ELDERCARE ISSUES with care facilities, decisions about aging parents and estate distribution.

ORGANIZATIONAL CONFLICT within nonprofits, businesses or faith-based organizations.

WORKPLACE CONFLICT involving management, employees or co-workers.

CROSS-CULTURAL ISSUES involving cultural practices and beliefs.

We also provide mediation services at all sessions of Small Claims Court throughout King County.

All services are provided at affordable rates.

(206) 443-9603

DRCinfo@kcdrc.org
www.kcdrc.org

Dispute Resolution
CENTER of KING COUNTY