Please explain why you feel you are the most qualified candidate for this appointment (attach additional paper if needed):

Because I have worked with both law enforcement (SPD and KC Sheriff's office) from beginning of a major shift in interaction with community, have liaised between multiple stakeholders including residential communities and protest organizers as well as law enforcement, and understand how positive change is made.

How did you learn of this opportunity?

Through County Council Member Kohl-Welles' office. The Council Member has seen some of my work, particularly with cannabis community and LEAD.
