A MOTION approving a report on proposed funding allocation methodology for human service programs in response to Motion 14588.

WHEREAS, Ordinance 17941 Section 58, as amended, appropriated the community and human services administration fund 2015/2016 biennium budget, and

WHEREAS, on March 14, 2016, Motion 14588 approved the Report on Proposed Funding Allocation Methodology for Human Services Programs ("the report on proposed funding") in response to a proviso in Ordinance 17941, Section 58, and

WHEREAS, Motion 14588 further requested that, within fifteen days after the date on which the final workgroup concludes its deliberations regarding work outlined in the report on proposed funding, the executive transmit to the council the conclusions of the allocation workgroups and a motion approving the final parameters that will be used to select providers for funding, and

WHEREAS, the final workgroup concluded its deliberations on June 30, 2016;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The council approves the Report on Final Conclusions for Proposed Funding Allocation Methodology for Human Services Programs, Attachment A to this motion, which contains the conclusions of the funding allocation workgroups and the final parameters that will be used to select providers for funding.
