2. Reports on Special and Outside Committees

Ms. Patterson reported on the January 12, 2007 Executive Board meeting of the Regional Transportation Investment District. She indicated the Board is on target in placing a comprehensive road and transit measure before the voters in November. The Board received a briefing from the Washington State Department of Transportation staff on its review of the project costs. She also indicated that within the next few weeks the Board will be refining its draft plan and in February or March will present the plan to the public in coordination with Sound Transit. The goal is to have a final plan ready by late spring.

Ms. Patterson reported on the Puget Sound Regional Council Transportation Policy Board meeting. The Board reviewed and unanimously adopted the 2007 legislative agenda. Ms. Patterson indicated that the Board's number one priority in 2007 is seeing that the ballot measure between RTID and Sound Transit is successful. The final legislative agenda will be taken up at the Executive Board meeting in February.

Mr. Phillips reported on the January 11, 2007 meeting of Sound Transit. He indicated that the Board passed and marked a major milestone toward getting a regional transit package on the ballot for voter approval in November.
