Ordinance 16207

Proposed No. 2008-0362.2

Sponsors Ferguson, Phillips and Lambert

1 AN ORDINANCE proposing an amendment to Section 310
2 of the King County Charter, Section 430 of the King County
3 Charter and Section 550 of the King County Charter and 4 addition of a new Section 425 to the King County Charter, 5 requiring the establishment of the forecast council and the 6 office of economic and financial analysis; and submitting the 7 same to the voters of the county for their ratification or 8 rejection at the November 2008 general election.

9

10 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

11 SECTION 1. There shall be submitted to the voters of King County for their 12 approval and ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this county
13 occurring more than forty-five days after the enactment of this ordinance, an amendment
14 to Sections 310, 430 and 550 of the King County Charter and addition of a new Section
15 425 to the King County Charter, as set forth herein:

16 Section 310. Composition and Powers.

17 The executive branch shall be composed of the county executive, the county

18 administrative officer, the county assessor, the officers and employees of administrative 19 offices and executive departments established by this charter or created by the county 20 council and the members of the boards and commissions, except the forecast council and 21 office of economic and financial analysis, the board of appeals and the personnel board.

22 The executive branch shall have all executive powers of the county under this charter.

23 Section 425. Economic and Financial Analysis.

24 425.10. Forecast Council and Office of Economic and Financial Analysis.

25 The county council shall by ordinance establish the forecast council, which shall 26 adopt official county economic and revenue forecasts that must be used as the basis for 27 the executive's budget proposals. The county council shall by ordinance establish the 28 office of economic and financial analysis.

29 425.20. Oversight of Office of Economic and Financial Analysis.

30 The forecast council shall by unanimous vote appoint the chief county economist
31 who shall administer the office of economic and financial analysis. The forecast council 32 shall conduct an open and competitive process to select the chief economist. The chief 33 economist may be removed by a vote of three members of the forecast council. The chief 34 economist shall be responsible for the employment and supervision of those employees 35 whom he or she deems necessary to assist in the performance of the duties of the office.

36 The forecast council shall approve an annual work program for the office of 37 economic and financial analysis and also may assign additional economic and financial 38 studies to the office.

39 425.30. Forecast Council Composition.

40 The forecast council shall be composed of the executive, two county council

41 members and a county employee with knowledge of the budgeting and financial 42 management practices of the county to be appointed by the executive. County council
43 members shall be appointed annually by the chair of the county council. Appointments 44 to the forecast council shall not be subject to confirmation.

45 425.40. Revenue Forecasts.

46 By March 1 and at least one hundred-seventy days prior to the end of each year or 47 alternate dates approved by a majority of the forecast council of each year, the chief 48 economist shall prepare, respectively, proposed preliminary and updated official 49 economic and revenue forecasts for county government and submit these to the forecast
50 council. Forecasts may be adopted or revised by a vote of the majority of the forecast 51 council within fifteen days of their submittal by the chief economist, or the forecast shall 52 be deemed adopted. The preliminary forecast shall be used as the basis for the 53 executive's preliminary budget preparation including preparation of the status quo budget, 54 budget instructions to departments, and preliminary review of departmental submittals to 55 the executive. The updated forecast shall be used as the basis for the executive's
56 proposed budget. The most-current forecast shall be used as the basis for budget 57 amendments.

58 Section 430. Contents of Budget.

59 The budget shall include all funds, revenues and reserves; shall be divided into 60 programs, projects and objects of expense and shall include supporting data deemed 61 advisable by the county executive or required by ordinance; shall indicate as to each 62 program, project or object of expense the actual expenditures of the preceding fiscal year, 63 the estimated expenditures for the current fiscal year and requested appropriations for the

64 next fiscal year; and shall include the proposed capital improvement program for the next 65 six fiscal years. The expenditures included in the budget for the ensuing fiscal year shall 66 not exceed the estimated revenues as forecast under Section 425.40 of this charter.

67 Section 550. Career Service Positions.

68 All county employees and officers shall be members of the career service except 69 those in the following positions: all elected officers; the county auditor, the clerk and all 70 other employees of the county council; the county administrative officer; the chief officer 71 of each executive department and administrative office; the members of all boards and 72 commissions; the chief economist and other employees of the office of economic and 73 financial analysis; administrative assistants for the county executive and one administrative 74 assistant each for the county administrative officer, the county auditor, the county assessor,
75 the chief officer of each executive department and administrative office and for each board 76 and commission; a chief deputy for the county assessor; one confidential secretary each for 77 the county executive, the chief officer of each executive department and administrative 78 office, and for each administrative assistant specified ((herein)) in this section; all 79 employees of those officers who are exempted from the provisions of this charter by the 80 state constitution; persons employed in a professional or scientific capacity to conduct a 81 special inquiry, investigation or examination; part-time and temporary employees; 82 administrative interns; election precinct officials; all persons serving the county without 83 compensation; physicians; surgeons; dentists; medical interns; and student nurses and 84 inmates employed by county hospitals, tuberculosis sanitariums and health departments of 85 the county.

86           Part-time Employees. All part-time employees shall be exempted from career 87           service membership except, effective January 1, 1989, all part-time employees employed at 88           least half-time or more, as defined by ordinance, shall be members of the career service.

89           SECTION 2. The clerk of the council shall certify the proposition to the manager 90           of the elections division, in substantially the following form, with such additions,

92 deletions or modifications as may be required by the prosecuting attorney:

93 Shall the King County Charter be amended to require the establishment of 94 the forecast council and the office of economic and financial analysis?
