PREAMBLE:

King County has determined that significant historic and archaeological 11 properties should be preserved for the benefit of county residents, visitors
12 and future generations (K.C.C. chapter 20.62).

13

King County has made a policy determination that adverse impacts to 14 historic and archaeological properties significant in the history of the county shall be mitigated in accordance with county Comprehensive Plan

16 policies P-216 to P-219, under the state Environmental Policy Act, K.C.C.

17 chapter 20.44 and other county regulations including K.C.C. chapter
18 20.62.150.

19 Federal undertakings in King County are subject to Section 106 of the 20 National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, as amended (16 U.S.C. 470),
21 and require mitigation of adverse impacts to cultural resources.

22 The mitigation requires professional expertise and oversight by cultural 23 resource managers.

24 The mitigation measures supported by this fund may be conducted before,
25 during or after actual implementation of the project causing the adverse
26 effects, and at locations other than the project site.
