413 C. Applications will be screened according to written objective work-related 414 criteria established from the job description. Oral interviews will be scheduled with an 415 interview team selected by the council administrator. The oral interview has a two-fold
416 purpose: (1) to give the applicant a more detailed description of the job, and the council 417 and the staff; and (2) to examine in a structured fashion the experience and qualifications 418 of the applicant. The oral interview may be supplemented by additional tests of an 419 applicant's abilities such as writing samples and analytical exercises.

420 D. The council administrator will assess the results of the interview/testing 421 process and will recommend the top candidates to the employment and administration
422 committee. The employment and administration committee may choose to consider other 423 candidates than those recommended by the council administrator. The employment and 424 administration committee will recommend a candidate to the council for final selection.
425 After the employment and administration committee has made a recommendation, the 426 council may choose to consider other candidates than those recommended by the 427 employment and administration committee.

428 E. In cases where a new vacancy occurs within six months of the recruitment 429 process described above, the administrator may use the results of the previous

430 recruitment process to select finalists for recommendation to the council to fill the vacant 431 position.

432 F. The only exceptions to this procedure will be for internal promotions and for 433 the recruitment of interns, clerical employees, CTV operations specialists, and temporary 434 employees.

435 G. A preference shall be given to an applicant for any position who is presently 436 on the staff of the legislative branch who has already demonstrated the capability to 437 perform the duties of the position satisfactorily.

438 H. The authority for hiring temporary employees for positions lasting sixty days 439 or less is delegated to the chief of staff.

440 XII. Motion 100002, Sections A-C, and OR 4-010 are each hereby amended to 445 B. The position of manager of the office of government access television is 446 hereby created. The manager of the office shall be appointed to the position by a 447 majority of the members of the county council for a term of three years. A subcommittee 448 of the government access channel oversight committee, consisting of its citizen members, 449 shall review and interview sufficient applicants for the position and recommend a group 450 of finalists to the council.

451 C. The manager of the office may be removed at any time, with or without cause, 452 by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the county council. The council may appoint

453 an interim manager, for a period not to exceed six months, pending the appointment of a 454 new manager whenever the term of office has expired or the office otherwise becomes 455 vacant. The council's employment and administration committee may take disciplinary 456 action regarding the manager, consistent with council employment practices and policies.
457 The chair of the council shall provide reasonable notification to the government access 458 channel oversight committee of any such disciplinary action. The manager shall be 459 appointed solely with regard to his or her qualifications and experience to manage a 460 government access television channel. The manager shall hold no other appointive or 461 elective public office or position during the term of employment as manager.

462 XIII. For purposes of implementing council procedures and policies, any 463 references in adopted procedures, policies or legislation to "employment committee" shall 464 be deemed to mean the employment and administration committee.

465 XIV. This motion takes effect January 1, 2007.
