RE: Transmittal of OLEO 2021 Annual Report

Dear Clerk Pedroza and Councilmembers,

In accordance with King County Code 2.75.040, I am pleased to transmit the annual report for the Office of Law Enforcement Oversight for the year 2021, along with the below attendant motion accepting the report.

OLEO staff has worked diligently to represent the interests of the public, and I want to publicly acknowledge their hard work and dedication. They have also done an excellent job in producing this report.

I also want to thank you, Councilmembers, for your support for OLEO and your readiness to engage with our office. I look forward to briefing you on this report at the June LJHHS Committee meeting and to continuing to work with you to expand, empower, and enshrine police accountability mechanisms in King County.

Respectfully,

Tamer Abouzeid
