Dear Property Owner:

As you may know, a petition has been presented to the Metropolitan King County Council to change the name of 136th Place Southwest to Tabor Avenue Southwest. Because this street is located in unincorporated King County, the County Council is responsible for deciding whether or not to change the street name. If the Council approves the name change, the street address of your property on 136th Place SW will be changed.

Proposed Ordinance 2009-0456 would approve this street name change. As a first step in considering this proposed ordinance, the Council's Physical Environment Committee will review the ordinance on Tuesday, August 25, 2009. This meeting will take place starting at 9:30 a.m. in the Council Chambers on the 10th Floor of the King County Courthouse at 516 Third Avenue in Seattle.

After the committee makes its recommendation, the legislation will be considered by the Council for public hearing and possible action. K.C.C. 16.08.020 requires that all affected property owners be given 20 days advance notice of the public hearing on a proposed street name change. This is your notice that on Tuesday, September 8, 2009, at 1:30 p.m., the Metropolitan King County Council will hold a public hearing on Proposed Ordinance 2009-0456 in the Council Chambers. After the public hearing, the Council may act on the proposed ordinance.

As an affected property owner, you can attend the September 8 public hearing to testify before the County Council. You may also submit your comments in writing to the following address:

ATTN: Anne Noris, Clerk
Metropolitan King County Council
King County Courthouse
516 Third Avenue, Room W1039
Seattle, WA 98104

or may e-mail them, referring to "Street Name Change – 136th Pl SW/Tabor Avenue SW" in the subject line, to: anne.noris@kingcounty.gov. Written and e-mailed comments will be provided to the councilmembers at the time of the public hearing. Comments received by the close of business on August 24 will be provided to the Physical Environment Committee members for review at the August 25 committee meeting.

Please let me know if you have any questions or I can provide further information.

Sincerely,

Anne Noris
Clerk of the Council
