Dear Review Team Members:

On October 1, 2013, I emailed the Department of Commerce a copy of a letter from King County Road Services Division Director Brenda Bauer, with a copy of a proposed ordinance and Transportation Concurrency Map update for your review. You responded that the 60 day review period began on October 2, under Material ID # 19604. Since that time, Road Services has decided to make revisions to the proposed ordinance and map. Attached for your review are the revised proposed ordinance and map updating the King County Transportation Concurrency Management Program for 2013. The ordinance contains a change in the transportation concurrency testing procedures, as well as change from an annual update to a biennial update. The new map reflects the changes to the testing procedures. We are now expecting the King County Council will be considering the proposed update in December and the first quarter of 2014.

Please advise as to whether the 60 day time period is still proceeding from October 2, or whether the review period begins anew. This will enable the County to plan the review and adoption schedule for the proposed ordinance. More information on the county's Transportation Concurrency Management Program, as well as the proposed ordinance and map, is also available on the county's web

If you have any questions or need more information from King County, please do not hesitate to contact me below, or Josh Peters, Transportation Planning Supervisor (josh.peters@kingcounty.gov).

Thank you.
