

CTA to Provide Free Rides, Extra Service for New Year's Eve

12/29/2016

CTA also notifies customers that Illinois Medical District (IMD) Blue Line station construction work will require temporary closure of station entrance on Paulina; station's remaining two entrances will remain open

NOTE: All CTA bus and rail service will operate on a regular Saturday schedule on Saturday, December 31. A Sunday schedule will be in effect on Sunday, January 1 and on Monday, January 2, when the New Year is a nationally observed holiday.

The Chicago Transit Authority is a convenient and affordable transit option for traveling to events around Chicago this weekend, including New Year's Eve celebrations such as the fireworks display at Navy Pier, the Chi Town Rising countdown and celebration, as well as upcoming events at the United Center.

Free rides will be provided on CTA buses and trains beginning 10 p.m. Saturday, December 31 until 4 a.m. Sunday, January 1.

For customers traveling to and from events around Chicago this New Year's Eve outside the free ride period, the CTA recommends purchasing fares in advance, which will decrease travel times and avoid long lines at rail station vending machines. Customers can load ahead of time transit value or unlimited ride passes (1-day, 3-day, 7-day and 30-day) to their Ventra fare cards at rail stations, online or at nearly 1,300 local retailers (locations available at ventrachicago.com). Customers can also add value to their accounts by using the Ventra App, available for free download via www.ventrachicago.com, the App Store and Google Play.

Customers should allow extra travel time when traveling to these special events.

New Year's Eve Service

Reminder: free fares on New Year's Eve + how to get to DTLA's biggest NYE celebration

BY LEXI HINTON, DECEMBER 27, 2016

Los Angeles's freeways were gridlocked this past Thanksgiving, and if that wasn't scary enough, you can bet traffic will be just as awful on New Year's Eve.

The Auto Club of Southern California (AAA) recorded the highest number of turkey day travelers in nearly a decade—proving the last place you want to be for the holidays is behind the wheel of a car. With that in mind, Metro is once again offering holiday free fares to help party goers skip traffic and get home safely.

On New Year's Eve, Metro Rail and Bus, including the Orange and Silver Line, will run on regular Saturday schedule with overnight, 24-hour service. Specifically, no fare will be charged from 9 p.m. New Year's Eve (Dec. 31) until 2 a.m. Sunday morning New Year's Day (Jan. 1). The fare gates at all Metro Rail stations will be unlatched during this time. After 2 a.m., customers must TAP to ride.

Ring in the new year at Grand Park + The Music Center's N.Y.E.L.A.? You can bypass traffic and get there easily by taking the Metro Red Line or Purple Line to Civic Center/Grand Park Station, or grab a Metro Bike! From Christmas Eve through New Year's Day, walk-up users can bike for just $1 per 30-minute ride. Check one out at any bike share station with your credit/debit card and enter the promo code to receive a discount. If using Civic Center/Grand Park Station, use the 1st Street exit. The Temple Street exit will be reserved for families with strollers and customers with disabilities. Be sure to present your TAP card at any Grand Park info booth to receive a free glow stick!

For those in the Long Beach area, please note Downtown Long Beach Station will be closed from 7 p.m. until 3 a.m. due to New Year's Eve celebrations on Pine Avenue. The following Blue Line service changes will also be in effect: Trains will run every 15 minutes from 7 p.m. to close of service. The last complete northbound trips to downtown Los Angeles will depart Long Beach at approximately 5:40, 5:53, 6:08, 6:23 and 6:38 p.m. The last complete southbound trips to Long Beach leave downtown L.A. at approximately 4:58, 5:10, 5:22, 5:34 and 5:46 p.m.

Metro will operate on Sunday/Holiday schedule on New Year's Day with extra game day service for the L.A. Rams vs. Arizona Cardinals game. If you plan to attend the Lakers vs. Raptors game that evening, consider going Metro to Pico Station across from the Staples Center. As the first game of the year, expensive and limited parking is expected.

Finally, another friendly reminder that free fares are only in effect from 9 p.m. on New Year's Eve through 2 a.m. Anyone boarding a Metro train or bus after 2 a.m. will need to TAP to ride. Regular fare is $1.75 one-way and includes up to two hours of free transfers. Day pass holders should note that passes are valid until 3 a.m. the following day of purchase. See our holiday fares page for more information.

Thank you to everyone for your support this year! We hope you all have a safe and happy New Year. See you in 2017!

TriMet offers free rides on New Year's Eve

December 29, 2016 by Mary Fetsch

Celebrate safely with TriMet with extended MAX service

Celebrate the New Year safely with TriMet. On Sat., Dec. 31, all MAX and bus service will be free after 8 p.m., and MAX service will be extended until around 3 a.m. Rides on Portland Streetcar will also be free.

MAX Blue, Green, Orange, Red and Yellow line trains will run on Saturday schedules with extended late-night service running approximately every 30 minutes until about 3 a.m. Late-night service on the MAX Red Line will be provided by a shuttle bus between the Portland International Airport and Gateway Transit Center. Riders heading to the airport can take a Blue or Green line train to Gateway TC and transfer to the shuttle bus. Find out about TriMet's New Year's services and plan your trip on our website, then just hop on board!

Celebrate safely and responsibly

- Be alert and pay attention around buses and trains.
- While celebrating, be respectful of our operators, vehicles and other riders.
- Be aware of your surroundings. If you see something suspicious, say something to a TriMet employee, a police or security officer, or call 9-1-1.

Monday, Jan. 2 service

In observance of the New Year holiday on Monday, Jan. 2, all MAX and bus service will run on Sunday schedules. WES Commuter Rail will not be in service. Our 503-238-RIDE (7344) Customer Service call center and the TriMet Ticket Office at Pioneer Courthouse Square will be closed. The Online Trip Planner and TransitTracker will reflect the holiday schedules.
