

Metropolitan King County Council Committee of the Whole

STAFF REPORT

Agenda Item No.: 7 Date: 7 July 2010

Proposed Ordinance No.: 2009-0496 Prepared by: Rebecha Cusack

Nick Wagner

SUMMARY

Proposed Ordinance 2009-0496 (pp. 5-8 of these materials) would place on the November 2010 ballot a charter amendment eliminating, as redundant, the requirement that campaign-related finance reports be filed with the county director of elections as well as with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission.<sup>1</sup>

BACKGROUND

Candidates for state or local elective office and political committees are required by state law to file monthly reports of campaign receipts and expenditures with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) and with the county elections officer. See RCW 42.17.080, pp. 11-12 of these materials. These are the reports referred to by the PDC as "C" reports. The reports must be filed on the 10th day of each month, including the month after the election. RCW 42.17.080(2)(b),(c).

King County Charter section 690 (p. 17 of these materials) requires candidates for county elective office to file a similar report with the county elections officer "within 10 days after the primary, general or special election, as the case may be."

<sup>2</sup> Since 2002, reports that were filed with the PDC electronically have not had to be filed locally. See

RCW 42.17.080(9).

&lt;sup>3</sup> The reports must also be filed on the 21st day and the seventh day preceding the date of the election. RCW 42.17.080(2)(a). See also the PDC reporting schedules for 2010 and PDC FAQs (pp. 13-16 of these materials).

&lt;sup>4</sup> Section 690 provides in part: "Every candidate for nomination or election to an elective county office shall, within ten days after the primary, general or special election as the case may be, file an itemized statement with the executive department responsible for conducting elections showing all campaign contributions and pledges of manpower and material made to him or on his behalf and all campaign expenditures and obligations incurred by him or on his behalf."

Section 690 is implemented by the county code, which requires in KCC 1.04.010 (p. 19 of these materials) that candidates use the state PDC forms for making the county filing. In practice, therefore, candidates can meet the requirement of charter section 690 by filing with King County Elections the same statements of campaign receipts and expenditures that they file with the state PDC.

The state PDC now makes available online the campaign financial statements that it receives from candidates. Arguably, this undercuts the need for local filing, since the information is readily available online from the state PDC. Accordingly, legislation signed by the governor on March 25 of this year, which will take effect on June 10, eliminates the requirement that candidates and political committees file "C" reports with their local county elections officer in addition to the state PDC. See Senate Bill 6243, Chapter 205, Laws of 2010 (pp. 21-34 of these materials).<sup>5</sup>

Charter section 690, however, remains in effect and continues to require "C" reports to be filed locally.

PROPOSED ORDINANCE 2009-0496

The charter amendment that would be placed on the ballot by Proposed Ordinance 2009-0496 (pp. 5-8 of these materials) would eliminate this seemingly redundant local filing requirement in King County by inserting the following sentence into charter section 690: "Timely filing of a statement of campaign receipts and expenditures with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission in accordance with chapter 42.17 RCW satisfies the filing obligations of this section."

The proposed amendment also includes technical changes to make the language of section 690 gender-neutral.

TITLE AMENDMENT

Title Amendment T1 would update the ordinance title to provide that the proposed charter amendment is to be placed on the ballot in 2010, rather than 2009 as originally drafted

COUNCIL OPTIONS

The Council has at least two options:

1. Adopt Proposed Ordinance 2009-0496 (pp. 5-8 of these materials), which would place on the November 2010 ballot a charter amendment eliminating the requirement that campaign-related finance reports be filed with the county director of elections as well as with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission;

&lt;sup>5</sup> The Final Bill Report, which summarizes the effect of SB6243, is included at pp. 35-36.

2. Take no action at this time.

TIMELINE

The charter deadline for Council action to place proposed amendments on the November 2010 ballot is September 17; however, adoption of a charter amendment at that late date, while complying with the county charter, would make it necessary for county elections staff to publish a supplemental voter pamphlet, which would entail substantial additional cost to the county. Adoption that late would also put additional time pressure on the process of recruiting individuals to serve on the pro-con committees and preparing the pro-con statements. To avoid these undesirable consequences, the practical deadline for Council action to place a charter amendment on the ballot is the last Council meeting before the August recess: July 26.

1	AN ORDINANCE proposing an amendment to Section 690
2	of the King County Charter, to specify that timely filing of
3	a statement of campaign receipts and expenditures with the
4	Washington state Public Disclosure Commission in
5	accordance with chapter 42.17 RCW satisfies the filing
6	obligations of Section 690 of the King County Charter;
7	making technical corrections; and submitting the same to
8	the voters of the county for their ratification or rejection at
9	the November 2009 general election.
10	STATEMENT OF FACTS:
11	1. Section 690 of the King County Charter is redundant with requirements
12	in the RCW chapter 42.17 regarding the timely filing of statements of
13	campaign receipts and expenditures with the Washington State Public
14	Disclosure Commission.
15	2. The redundant filing of statements of campaign receipts and
16	expenditures is inefficient and not in the public interest.
17	3. Technological advances make records universally accessible
18	electronically, and it is more valuable and a better use of resources to have
19	records available electronically than in duplicate hard-copy format.

20	4. The county and the state have been performing the same function in
21	reporting campaign receipts and expenditures, but duplicating efforts is
22	not the most efficient use of public finances.
23	BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. There shall be submitted to the voters of King County for their approval and ratification or rejection, at the next general election to be held in this county occurring more than forty-five days after the enactment of this ordinance, an amendment to Section 690 of the King County Charter as set forth herein:

Section 690 Statement of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures.

Every candidate for nomination or election to an elective county office shall, within ten days after the primary, general or special election as the case may be, file an itemized statement with the executive department responsible for conducting elections showing all campaign contributions and pledges of manpower and material made to ((him)) the candidate or on ((his)) the candidate or on ((his)) the candidate or on ((his)) the candidate's behalf and all campaign expenditures and obligations incurred by ((him)) the candidate or on ((his)) the candidate's behalf. Such statement when filed shall be a public record. The county council shall by ordinance prescribe the form of such statement. Timely filing of a statement of campaign receipts and expenditures with the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission in accordance with chapter 42.17 RCW satisfies the filing obligations of this section. A willful violation of this section shall disqualify the candidate from holding county elective office.

41	SECTION 2. The clerk of the council shall certify the proposition to the county
42	elections director, in substantially the following form, with such additions, deletions or
43	modifications as may be required by the prosecuting attorney:
44	Shall Section 690 of the King County Charter be amended to specify that
45	timely filing of a statement of campaign receipts and expenditures with the
46	Washington State Public Disclosure Commission in accordance with

47	chapter 42.17 RCW satisfies the filing obligations of Section 690 of the

- (1) On the day the treasurer is designated, each candidate or political committee shall file with the commission and the county auditor or elections officer of the county in which the candidate resides, or in the case of a political committee, the county in which the treasurer resides, in addition to any statement of organization required under RCW 42.17.040 or 42.17.050, a report of all contributions received and expenditures made prior to that date, if any.
- (2) At the following intervals each treasurer shall file with the commission and the county auditor or elections officer of the county in which the candidate resides, or in the case of a political committee, the county in which the committee maintains its office or headquarters, and if there is no office or headquarters then in the county in which the treasurer resides, a report containing the information required by RCW 42.17.090:
  - (a) On the twenty-first day and the seventh day immediately preceding the date on which the election is held; and
  - (b) On the tenth day of the first month after the election; and
- (c) On the tenth day of each month in which no other reports are required to be filed under this section: PROVIDED, That such report shall only be filed if the committee has received a contribution or made an expenditure in the preceding calendar month and either the total contributions received or total expenditures made since the last such report exceed two hundred dollars.

When there is no outstanding debt or obligation, and the campaign fund is closed, and the campaign is concluded in all respects, and in the case of a political committee, the committee has ceased to function and has dissolved, the treasurer shall file a final report. Upon submitting a final report, the duties of the treasurer shall cease and there shall be no obligation to make any further reports.

The report filed twenty-one days before the election shall report all contributions received and expenditures made as of the end of the one business day before the date of the report. The report filed seven days before the election shall report all contributions received and expenditures made as of the end of the one business day before the date of the report. Reports filed on the tenth day of the month shall report all contributions received and expenditures made from the closing date of the last report filed through the last day of the month preceding the date of the current report.

- (3) For the period beginning the first day of the fourth month preceding the date on which the special election is held, or for the period beginning the first day of the fifth month before the date on which the general election is held, and ending on the date of that special or general election, each Monday the treasurer shall file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer a report of each bank deposit made during the previous seven calendar days. The report shall contain the name of each person contributing the funds so deposited and the amount contributed by each person. However, contributions of no more than twenty-five dollars in the aggregate from any one person may be deposited without identifying the contributor. A copy of the report shall be retained by the treasurer for his or her records. In the event of deposits made by a deputy treasurer, the copy shall be forwarded to the treasurer for his or her records. Each report shall be certified as correct by the treasurer or deputy treasurer making the deposit.
- (4) If a city requires that candidates or committees for city offices file reports with a city agency, the candidate or treasurer so filing need not also file the report with the county auditor or elections officer.
- (5) The treasurer or candidate shall maintain books of account accurately reflecting all contributions and expenditures on a current basis within five business days of receipt or expenditure. During the eight days immediately preceding the date of the election the books of account shall be kept current within one business day. As specified in the committee's statement of organization filed under RCW 42.17.040, the books of account must be open for public inspection by appointment at the designated place for inspections between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. on any day from the eighth day immediately before the election through the day immediately before the election, other than Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday. It is a violation of this chapter for a candidate or political committee to refuse to allow and keep an appointment for an inspection to be conducted during these authorized times and days. The appointment must be allowed at an authorized time and day for such inspections that is within twenty-four hours of the time and day that is requested for the inspection.

- (6) The treasurer or candidate shall preserve books of account, bills, receipts, and all other financial records of the campaign or political committee for not less than five calendar years following the year during which the transaction occurred.
- (7) All reports filed pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be certified as correct by the candidate and the treasurer.
- (8) Copies of all reports filed pursuant to this section shall be readily available for public inspection for at least two consecutive hours Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., as specified in the committee's statement of organization filed pursuant to RCW 42.17.040, at the principal headquarters or, if there is no headquarters, at the address of the treasurer or such other place as may be authorized by the commission.
- (9) After January 1, 2002, a report that is filed with the commission electronically need not also be filed with the county auditor or elections officer.
- (10) The commission shall adopt administrative rules establishing requirements for filer participation in any system designed and implemented by the commission for the electronic filing of reports.

• What Starts the Whole Process?

Becoming a candidate. According to the disclosure law, you become a candidate when you do one of these things: raise or spend money for your campaign; reserve space or purchase advertising to promote your candidacy; authorize someone else to do any of these activities for you; state publicly that you're seeking office; or file a declaration of candidacy.

Once I Become a Candidate, Then What?

Within two weeks of the date you become a candidate, you must file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement* (Form F-1) and a Candidate Registration form (Form C-1) with the PDC, if required. A copy of the C-1 must be filed with your county auditor or elections officer.

*An incumbent officeholder who has filed an F-1 earlier in the year does not need to file a second F-1 in the same year after becoming a candidate.

• Which Candidates Must File Disclosure Reports?

One of two things determines what a candidate discloses. For most candidates, it's the number of registered voters in the jurisdiction where the candidate runs for office. If you are a candidate running for office in a very small jurisdiction, the total amount of contributions you receive or expect to receive will determine whether you report contributions & expenditures.

You must file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement and campaign disclosure reports if you are:

- a state office candidate
- a county office candidate
- a local or judicial office candidate in a jurisdiction with 5,000 or more registered voters
- a candidate who receives or expects to receive contributions of $5,000 or more in the aggregate regardless of the number of registered voters

File just a Personal Financial Affairs Statement if you are:

 a candidate for local or judicial office in a jurisdiction with 1,000 or more but less than 5,000 registered voters and you do not expect to receive contributions totaling $5,000 or more

A candidate seeking election to an office in a jurisdiction with less than 1,000 registered voters who does not receive or expect to receive contributions totaling $5,000 or more does not file any reports with the Public Disclosure Commission.

Registered voter counts are available from the PDC or your county elections office.

(Answers to Questions Frequently Asked by First-Time Candidates)

May 2010

• Where Do I Get Blank Forms and Instructions?

Form templates, brochures, manuals, and training videos are available online at www.pdc.wa.gov under Filer Resources. Contact the PDC at 360-753-1111 or toll-free at 1-877-601-2828 if you do not have Internet access. The PDC offers free compliance training; the schedule is at www.pdc.wa.gov/filers.

• Electronic Filing

A candidate that expects to spend $10,000 or more is required to file campaign finance reports electronically. The PDC's free software, ORCA, can be used to electronically file the required campaign disclosure reports. The PDC staff offers free ORCA training – the schedule is available at www.pdc.wa.gov/filers.

To work properly, campaign data from the start of the campaign must be entered into the system.

For assistance with electronic filing of campaign finance reports, go to the PDC web page at www.pdc.wa.gov/filers or call toll free at 1-877-601-2828.

• I Suspect There's More to Reporting . . . Right?

Probably. It depends on how much you're going to raise and spend on your campaign.

If you choose Mini Reporting (limiting what you raise or spend to $5,000 and limiting contributions from one source other than yourself to $500), the C-1 and the F-1 are the only PDC reports you have to file. Be sure to access and carefully review the Mini Reporting manual found at www.pdc.wa.gov/filers.

If you're going to raise and spend over $5,000 to get elected (or less than that, but you want to accept more than $500 from one or more donors), you must select the Full Reporting option. You'll be required to file frequent and detailed contribution and expenditure reports (Forms C-3 and C-4, respectively).

The PDC realizes that candidates are not always able to forecast campaign costs accurately, and may need to switch reporting options. Changing from mini to full reporting must be done at least 30 business days before the election and approved by the PDC staff. A candidate who wishes to change from mini to full reporting must notify all opponents in writing, amend the registration, file contribution & expenditure reports from the start of the campaign, and send a letter to the PDC confirming that these steps have been completed before exceeding the mini reporting limits. The change in reporting options will be approved only if all of these steps are completed at least 30 business days before the election.

The approval to change reporting options from mini to full reporting within 30 business days of the election is not automatic and will only be granted under circumstances outlined in WAC 390-16-125.

• When are Contribution and Expenditure Reports Due?

C-3 Contribution Reports: Before June 1 of the election year, candidates fill out a C-3 report for each bank deposit and file these reports with their C-4 reports. Beginning June 1, each time you make a deposit you must file a C-3 no later than the following Monday. Since contributions must be deposited within 5 business days of receipt, active campaigns will make at least one weekly deposit.

C-4 Summary Reports: This report, along with its attached schedules, summarizes the campaign's financial activity and shows itemized expenditures for a specific period. C-4s are due: From the beginning of the campaign through May of the election year, if a campaign has over $200 in contributions or expenditures during a month, a C-4 report is filed by the 10th of the following month. Beginning with June of the election year and continuing through the primary and general elections, C-4 reports are due 21 and 7 days before each election and on the 10th of the month after the month the election was held with the candidate's name on the ballot, even if there was little or no activity to report.

Specific filing dates are listed in the 2010 Key Reporting Dates for Candidates found under Filer Resources at www.pdc.wa.gov. All PDC reports are considered filed as of the postmark date or, if filed electronically, on the file transfer date.

• Where Do I File PDC Reports?

Send the original of all campaign reports (the "C" series) to the PDC; provide a copy of these campaign reports to your county elections officer The personal financial affairs statement (F-1) is, in most cases, filed only with PDC in Olympia. By local ordinance, city office candidates may also have to file copies of "C" reports and the F-1 with their city clerk.

NOTE: Electronically filed reports are not required to be filed with the county auditor.

• Must I Have a Separate Campaign Account?

Candidates must open a separate campaign account in a bank, credit union or savings and loan institution if they accept monetary contributions. A candidate who personally funds his/her entire campaign and accepts no contributions does not have to open a bank account. These candidates are required to make all campaign records, which may include the personal checkbook register and bank statements, available for public inspection during the eight days before the election.

From Whom May I Accept Contributions?

Generally, contributions from individuals, corporations, unions and other organizations are permitted. Candidates for legislative, state executive office, judicial, and some county offices have special contributor restrictions. By federal law, no foreign corporations or citizens (unless they have green cards), national banks and corporations organized by authority of Congress and federal government contractors may contribute to or spend funds on behalf of U.S. candidates.

A candidate may personally finance his/her entire campaign. Local restrictions may apply to candidates seeking some county and city offices. Check with your county elections office or your city clerk.

May I Serve as My Own Treasurer?

Yes. However, candidates who select Full Reporting are strongly encouraged to enlist the aid of a treasurer who has the time and energy necessary to keep detailed, accurate records and file frequent reports. Your treasurer does not need to be a professional accountant.

• Is There a Contribution Limit?

State law sets contribution limits on donations to legislative, state executive, and judicial office candidates, as well as county office and port commissioner candidates in jurisdictions with more than 200,000 registered voters as of the last General Election [Clark, King, Pierce, Snohomish, and Spokane Counties and the Ports of Tacoma and Seattle in 2010] as well as bona fide political party and caucus political committees. See instruction manuals for details. Beginning June 10, limits are extended to county office candidates in all counties, all mayoral candidates, and all city council candidates.

During the 21 days before the general election, no contributor, except the state committee of a bona fide political party, may give more than a total of $50,000 to a statewide office candidate or $5,000 to any other candidate or political committee. This restriction also applies to a candidate's personal funds.

Candidates must not accept contributions that exceed their respective limits. Additional local restrictions may apply to candidates seeking local office.

• Is There an Expenditure Limit?

Candidates who choose Mini Reporting self-impose an expenditure limit of $5,000. There are no expenditure limits for candidates who choose Full Reporting.

• Must I Identify All Contributors?

Anyone who donates monetary and in-kind contributions totaling more than $25 over the course of your campaign must be identified by name and full address. Plus, if an individual gives you more than $100 in the aggregate, you must show this person's occupation and the name, city and state of his or her employer.

FINAL BILL REPORT SB 6243

C 205 L 10

Synopsis as Enacted

Brief Description: Eliminating provisions for filings at locations other than the public disclosure commission.

Sponsors: Senators Fairley, Oemig, Swecker and McDermott; by request of Public Disclosure Commission.

Senate Committee on Government Operations & Elections House Committee on State Government & Tribal Affairs

Background: Initiative 276, passed by voters in 1972, established disclosure of campaign finances, lobbyist activities, financial affairs of elective officers and candidates, and access to public records. That initiative also created the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC), a five member, bi-partisan citizen commission to enforce the provisions of the campaign finance disclosure law.

Among the statutory duties of the PDC are to: compile and maintain a current list of all filed reports; investigate whether properly completed statements and reports have been filed within the times required; and investigate and report apparent violations of campaign finance law to the appropriate authorities.

The law requires that political subcommittees file a statement of organization with both the PDC and the county auditor of the county in which the political committee's treasurer lives. This statement must be completed within two weeks of the committee's organization or within two weeks after the date when it first expects to receive contributions or make expenditures. The information required includes the names and addresses of the committee, any affiliated committees, its officers or responsible leaders, and its treasurer and depository. The statement of organization must also include information regarding the candidate the committee is supporting or opposing, or the ballot proposition the committee is supporting or opposing. A candidate, within two weeks after becoming a candidate, must also designate and file with the PDC and the county auditor the names and addresses of the campaign treasurer and depository.

Senate Bill Report - 1 - SB 6243

- on the 21st day and the 7th day immediately preceding the date of the election; and
- on the 10th day of the first month after the election.

A continuing political committee is required to report to the PDC and the county auditor (of the county in which the committee maintains its office or headquarters, or the county in which the committee treasurer resides) on the 10th day of every month detailing contributions and expenditures. If the continuing political committee files electronically with the PDC, then it need not report to the county auditor.

An independent expenditure is any expenditure that is made in support of, or in opposition to, any candidate or ballot proposition and is not otherwise required to report to the PDC and the county auditor. Persons making independent expenditures must file an initial report to the PDC and the county auditor within five days of making an independent expenditure of at least $100. In addition, further reports are required to be filed with the PDC and the county auditor at the following times:

- on the 21st day and the 7th day preceding the date on which the election is held;
- on the 10th day of the first month after the election; and
- on the 10th day of each month in which no other reports are required to be filed and the person has made an independent expenditure since the last previous report was filed.

A person or entity making an independent expenditure by mailing 1,000 or more identical (or nearly identical) cumulative pieces of political advertising in a single calendar year must file a statement with the county auditor within two working days after the mailing date. The statement must disclose the number of pieces in the mailing and include an example of the mailed political advertising. The county auditor receiving the filing must be the county of residence for mailings the candidate supported or opposed by the campaign expenditure. For mailings made in support of, or in opposition to, a ballot proposition, the statement must be filed with the county auditor of the county of residence for the person making the expenditure.

Summary: The requirement that candidates and political committees file campaign-related reports and statements with their local county auditor in addition to the Public Disclosure Commission is eliminated.
