AN ORDINANCE amending the King County council rules meetings in response to an emergency declaration issued by the King County executive; amending K.C.C. 1.24.035; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. Findings:

A. On February 29, 2020, public health - Seattle & King County confirmed the first cases of the novel coronavirus ("COVID-19"), including one death, in the county.

B. COVID-19 is a respiratory disease that can result in serious illness or death and can easily spread from person to person.

C. On March 1, 2020, King County executive Dow Constantine signed a proclamation of emergency in response to COVID-19, enabling "extraordinary measures" to fight the outbreak.

D. On March 16, 2020, Governor Jay Inslee ordered the statewide closure of food establishments to sit in serve and the prohibition of gatherings of more than fifty people.

E. Dr. Jeff Duchin, health officer for public health - Seattle & King County issued a parallel local Health Officer Order in King County stating "These orders are essential to protect our whole community from an unprecedented outbreak, especially the most vulnerable people and our health care system."

F. Foremost among the directives in the local Health Officer Order are the imposition of social distancing and the discouragement of the congregation of persons.

G. To that end, and in the interests of focusing all immediate efforts on COVID-19 response and recovery, King County council has temporarily suspended both standing and regional committee and judiciously scheduling full council meetings to address time sensitive matters and issues related to the COVID-19 response and recovery efforts.

H. As the duration and impact of the emergency cannot be foreseen, the council desires to make formally provisions for how to effectively proceed with doing the people's business, especially focusing on the need to address COVID-19 response and recovery issues in King County.

SECTION 2. Ordinance 11683, Section 4, as amended, and K.C.C. 1.24.035 are hereby amended to read as follows:

However, the regular meetings of the council shall not take place((~~from March 30, 2020, through April 11, 2020;~~)) from August 1, 2020, through August 14, 2020; and from December 16, 2020, through January 3, 2021. Until either the executive terminates the March 1, 2020, proclamation of emergency in response to COVID-19 or this subsection is amended, the regular meeting time of the council is 1:00 p.m. on every-other Tuesday, starting with the regular council meeting on April 14, 2020. All regular or special meetings of council committees shall be regular or special council meetings, in accordance with subsection F. of this rule.

b. Each fifth Wednesday of each month from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. shall be reserved for special

2.a. All regular meetings of the King County council and the council's committees, except for the committee of the whole work sessions, shall be held in the council chambers on the tenth floor of the King County Courthouse in Seattle, Washington. All regular meetings of the committee of the whole work sessions shall be held in the southwest conference room on the twelfth floor of the King County Courthouse in Seattle, Washington.

b. Whenever, due to an emergency, as defined in K.C.C. 12.52.010, it is imprudent, inexpedient or impossible to conduct the affairs of the council at the regular or usual place or places, the council may meet at any place within or without the territorial limits of the county on the call of the chair or any two members of the council. After an emergency relocation, the affairs of the council shall be lawfully conducted at the emergency location for the duration of the emergency.
