AN ORDINANCE to establish the official symbol of King County to be the likeness of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; amending Ordinance 8227, Section 1, and K.C.C. 1.36.010 and adding new sections to K.C.C. chapter 1.36.

STATEMENT OF FACTS:

1. The Oregon territorial legislature created new counties in 1852 north of the Columbia river in what is now Washington state. It named Pierce county after the incumbent president Franklin Pierce and King County after the incumbent vice president William Rufus de Vane King.

Historians suggest that this was done to seek political favor with the new federal administration.

King was a slave owner and a strong supporter of the Fugitive Slave Act.

2. The King County council passed Motion 6461 on February 24, 1986, recognizing the great contributions and many achievements in public service of Nobel Peace Prize laureate the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., including his persistent and unfailing efforts leading to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

3. Motion 6461 changed the namesake of King County from William Rufus de Vane King to the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

4. All counties are creations of state law and are established by the state of Washington. The state Legislature passed Chapter 90, Laws of Washington 2005 (Engrossed Senate Bill 5332) to rename King County in honor of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Governor Christine Gregoire signed this legislation into law in a ceremony held in the King County Courthouse in Seattle on April 19, 2005. The law took effect July 24, 2005.

5. Since the state has officially renamed King County in honor of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the official symbol of the county should reflect and call to mind Dr. King as its namesake.

6. The estate of Dr. King and the Martin Luther King, Jr., Center for Nonviolent Social Change ("King Center") oversee the King estate's intellectual property rights. The King Center regularly authorizes nonprofit and governmental organizations to use the intellectual property of Dr. King in nonprofit, noncommercial activities promoting Dr. King's legacy. The authorization form used by the King Center notes that "the King Center must give its express written consent for the creation and selling of merchandise using the intellectual property."

7. Use of the likeness of Dr. King as the new official symbol and logo for King County is intended to promote Dr. King's legacy of nonviolent social change and to effectuate the prior legislative policy decisions of Washington state and King County to honor Dr. King's memory by renaming King County. The county does not intend to seek commercial profit from this tribute and wishes to ensure that its use of the new official county symbol is consistent with this intent. The county acknowledges the King Center's policies regarding merchandise and similar commercial uses and intends to limit the county's use of the logo to official county purposes.
