WASTEWATER TREATMENT - From the water quality fund there is hereby appropriated to:

Wastewater treatment $0

ER1 EXPENDITURE RESTRICTION:

((Of this appropriation, $1,717,149)) $1,652,981 in operational cost savings shall be deposited in the wastewater treatment division's rate stabilization reserve.

ER2 EXPENDITURE RESTRICTION:

Of this appropriation, until April 30, 2010, $1,363,340 shall be expended or encumbered by wastewater treatment division solely for metropolitan water pollution abatement costs incurred in response to Green river flooding.

After April 30, 2010, any remaining amount of the $1,363,340 not expended or encumbered for such purposes shall be allocated to Category III funds (Culver program) and only for water quality improvement activities, programs and projects within watersheds served by the county's regional wastewater system, provided a supplemental appropriation is made to the water and land resources division.

P1 PROVIDED THAT:

Of this appropriation, $100,000 may not be expended or encumbered until: (1) the executive has bargained with labor regarding a new contract for wastewater treatment operators at West Point and South treatment plants, including shift schedules and assumed over time or compensated time; and (2) the executive has reported to the council on the outcome of these negotiations, providing analysis of the costs and benefits of any recommended contract in a report transmitted to the council at least one month before transmittal of legislation for council approval of a new contract with the wastewater treatment operators.

The report required to be submitted by this proviso must be filed in the form of a paper original and an electronic copy with the clerk of the council, who shall retain the original and provide an electronic copy to all councilmembers and to the committee coordinator for the government and accountability committee and the regional water quality committee or their successors.

P2 PROVIDED FURTHER THAT:

A. Of this appropriation, $100,000 may not be expended or encumbered until the executive has collaborated with the Brightwater Oversight Management Consultant and the King County auditor's office capital projects oversight program and submitted a report for council acceptance by motion, regarding: (1) an analysis and verification that the wastewater treatment division's projected, as of December 31, 2009, operating costs for the Brightwater Treatment System are reasonable: (a) during the early post commissioning phase when Brightwater effluent will conveyed to other treatment plants for discharge; and (b) when fully operational and discharging effluent via the Brightwater conveyance system. If any portion of the wastewater treatment division's projected operating costs are not reasonable, then the report should indicate what elements should be adjusted and provide a reasonable estimate for those elements; and (2) building on the verified and, if necessary, adjusted estimate of operating costs for the Brightwater treatment system developed under item (1) of this subsection A. of this proviso, the results of the collaborative efforts in developing potentials to maximize operational savings before and during the commissioning of the Brightwater treatment system. The report and motion shall be transmitted by April 2, 2010.

B. For the verification of wastewater treatment division projected operational costs analysis, the report shall examine, but not be limited to, the following: (1) a breakdown of the anticipated operating expenses associated with the early post commissioning period and a breakdown of operating expenses when fully operational; (2) startup plans and necessary staffing; and (3) anticipated consultants or other resources that will be needed and the costs associated. Based on the verification of wastewater treatment division projected operational costs analysis, the report shall also specifically identify options for reducing operating costs and make recommendations for a cost-effective startup; as well as development of opportunities for operational savings.

C. Any report or motion required to be submitted by this proviso must be filed in the form of a paper original and an electronic copy with the clerk of the council, who shall retain the original and provide an electronic copy to all councilmembers and to the committee coordinator for the government and accountability committee and the regional water quality committee or their successors.
