

business in unincorporated King County;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The King County council declares that the term "grocery employee" in Ordinance 19247 does not include:

A. Employees of a grocery employer, who perform administrative functions that entail regular visits to grocery businesses located in unincorporated King County, but those employees are not based or do not primarily work at any of those locations; and

B. Delivery-truck-driver employees of a grocery employer, whose duties primarily involve driving from one grocery business location to another, who are not based at any particular grocery business location, who spend little time in close proximity to grocery employees and whose work does not require them to interact with members of the public; and

C. Home delivery truck driver employees of a grocery employer, whose duties primarily involve driving from grocery business locations to fill customers' orders, who are not based at any particular grocery business location, who spend little time in close proximity to grocery employees and whose work does not require them to interact with members of the public.
