

WHEREAS, the availability or ability of candidates with the requisite skills and experience to be the REALS director during this time period is virtually nonexistent, and

WHEREAS, the executive and the department of executive services hereby certify that they are currently engaged in a competitive search process for the position, and

WHEREAS, King County has contracted with the Waldron Company to provide recruitment services for the REALS director position, and

WHEREAS, the continuity of leadership in King County elections is a necessary ingredient in preparing and administering successful elections, during the pendency of recruitment efforts, and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of the county and its citizens and is critical to the effective running of the records, elections and licensing services division that Mr. Buck continue serving in the interim while the search for qualified candidates for the position has been concluded, and

WHEREAS, the initial appointment of James J. Buck as the interim director is limited to one hundred fifty days pursuant to K.C.C. 2.16.110 E.1, and

WHEREAS, the one-hundred-fifty-day maximum initial appointment duration will expire after December 13, 2006, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to K.C.C. 2.16.110 E.1, the county council shall grant at least one successive sixty-day extension of the interim appointment;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

James J. Buck shall continue to serve as the interim director for the records, elections and licensing services division of the department of executive services for an additional sixty days while the search for, and placement of, a new director is completed.